

AKC HUNTING TEST JUDGING & HANDLING SEMINAR

MAY 27, 2017

Gilmanton, WI

Blackhawk Retriever Club is proud to host an AKC Judging and Handling seminar. This program is required for any new judge and judges who have attended only one seminar three or more years ago. This seminar may also be substituted for those AKC Hunting Test judges that are in need of a written test to continue judging. It is also a great opportunity for handlers of all levels to learn the rules they are being judged under. The seminar will be presented by AKC Representative Russ Reavis. This will be a classroom only seminar. Lunch will be provided free of charge. Camping for the entire Memorial Day weekend is free for those attending. Come to improve your judging skills or to make yourself a better handler by understanding what judges are (or should be) looking for, then stay and train for the rest of the weekend.

The Seminar will be held at the:

Unbehaun Education Center
